No Man's Land

Richard Thompson

Hey come and make it easy Hey come and make it back It's no use to be free If lies are all the truth they see They'll screw up what you do When you're through

Hey come and make it easy Hey come and make it back If you need a friend And you need a way to lose the end You know a place for you When you're through
