

Prayer

Richie Havens

To all those outside the inner side
Let not your heart be heavy
There are those who understand
It is not easy
It is not easy to tell a lie

To all those inside the outer side
Let not your head be heavy
There are those who understand
It is not easy
It is not easy to know what to do

And to all those who understand
Let not your words be heavy
There is he who understands
It is not easy
It is not easy to be a mother and a father.
