

Chase It

Richie Kotzen

Did you think about the things you used to say?
How you'd laugh right in my face
Did you wanna take me down?
Did you think that I would always be afraid?
Just to damn scared to walk away
Now you wanna come around

Well I feel like I've finally had enough There's no making up

You know you gotta give it up
It's too far gone to chase it
And when the feelings go you don't wanna have to fake it.
All of the lies you love to tell you know
I heard it all before
But it's over now
your just gonna have to face it face It

Do you listen to your friends and what they say?
Do they help you with your faith when you're standing in the crowd?
And do you feel a little lost and out of place?
It's just the pain you can't erase
And I can't help you with it now

Cuz I feel like a weight is lifting off and there's no making up

That's why you gotta give it up
It's too far gone to chase it...
You know that when the feelings go
you don't wanna have to fake it.
All of the lies you love to tell you know i've heard it all before
But its over now
your just gonna have to face it

You know you've got to give it up
It's too far gone to chase it.
You know that when the feelings gone
you don't wanna have to fake it.
All of the lies you love to tell
you know I've heard it all before
But its over now
and your just gonna have to face it face it baby, face it that it's over.
