

Wave Of Emotion

Richie Kotzen

Said I brought you down (look in the mirror)
Truth goes round and round (sounds a little clearer)
Blame lives on your tongue (fault for everyone)
you're on your way alone
Said you're life's too hard (take a look around you)
Ignore that baby scar (it will prolong you)
Love the things you hate (Repeat's your middle name)
To live is not too late

We ride on the Wave of Emotion
Emotion that may carry you up or down
People and their problems
No one stands alone
ride on the Wave of Emotion

Say walk in my shoes (ain't never been worn)
You look for ways to lose (every single moment)
Pity is what you use (to get what you want)
I'm Tired of hearin' your blues

We ride on the Wave of Emotion
Emotion that may carry you up or down
People and their problems
No one stands alone
Ride on the Wave of Emotion
Ride on the Wave of Emotion

(Ow yeah yeah) Tell me what you're gonna do
(Ow mama) When it all comes down on you
