

Chained

Richie Sambora

Hey, what's this feeling
I've never been down this far before
I was scared of believing
That love would never find my door
I was chained
Chained
Chained to my broken dreams
I never knew who I was supposed to be
Waiting for someone to come and rescue me
Rescue me
Rescue me

Hey am I dreaming?
I never woke up from night before
Unaware I was bleeding
Slowly dying like the sun
Going down once more

I was chained
Chained
Chained to my broken dreams
I never know just where my life would lead
Hoping that someone would come and
Rescue me
Rescue me
Rescue me

Alone in the darkness
'Till I saw the light
Shining from your eyes
Now it burns inside and it keeps me alive

Lord I've been chained
I've been chained yeah

Was chained
Chained
Chained to these broken dreams
I never knew who I was supposed to be
Hoping someone would come and rescue me
I've been chained
Chained
I've been chained to these broken dreams
I never knew just where my life would lead
Waiting for you to come and rescue me
Hoping that someone would come and
Rescue me
Rescue me
Rescue me
Ooh yeah
Rescue me
