

Taking a Chance on the Wind

Richie Sambora

Lately it's been raining, but today is my lucky day
The faith I put in my pocket is the only thing that didn't get washed away

If I was making confession - well this is where I'd start
Every heartache was a blessing, every knockdown was a spark Every knockdown was a spark, yes it is

I'm tearing down all my troubles
Setting fire to all my sins
Another day's dawn and I'm moving it on again
I'm doubling down on freedom
Everything I believe in
I'm raising my flag and taking a chance on the wind
Yeah! Raising my flag and taking a chance on the wind

If time thought me a lesson, it's don't dwell on the past
'Cause the bad things fade and the good things..
The good things are built to last
When love comes easy like a fairy tale make believe
When you're banned all and you're ready to fall
There's only one remedy
Yeah, only one remedy, yes it is

I'm tearing down all my troubles
Setting fire to all my sins
Another day's dawn and I'm moving it on again
I'm doubling down on freedom
Everything I believe in
I'm raising my flag and taking a chance on the wind
Yeah! I'm raising my flag and taking a chance on the wind

On the fault lines time keeps on burning
It's a long time and you keep on loving Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah!

(solo)

I'm tearing down all my troubles
Setting fire to all my sins
It's been away too long and I'm moving it on again
I'm doubling down on freedom
Everything I believe in
I'm raising my flag and taking a chance on the wind
Yeah! I'm raising my flag and taking a chance... yeah, yeah... on the wind
