

Body & Soul

Rick Astley

Do you ever feel like you are drowning?
Do you ever feel like you are going under fast?
Do you ever feel that you are wasted
And you need a little confidence to pull you through?

Do you ever feel like you are losing?
Does it ever feel like you are fighting against the tide?
Do you ever feel like you are helpless
And you need to find somebody who can show you the way?

You know that I'm always with you
You know that I'm by your side
You know that I'm always with you, always with you
In body and soul, body and soul

Do you ever feel like you are running?
Do you ever feel like you are hiding from the truth?
Do you ever feel that you have wasted all the precious time
That you've been given all your life?

You know that I'm always with you
You know that I'm by your side
You know that I'm always with you, always with you
In body and soul, body and soul, body and soul

You may get so sad and weary
But you're never going under
Do you ever sit and wonder why?
Always there for you 'cos I won't let them drag
No, I won't let them drag you down

Yeah, ooh
You know that I'm always with you
You know that I'm by your side
You know that I'm always with you, always with you
In body and soul, body and soul, body and soul

You know that I'm always with you
You know that I'm by your side
You know that I'm always with you, always with you
In body and soul
