

Hold Me in Your Arms

Rick Astley

We've been trying for a long time to say what we want to say But feelings don't come easy to express in a simple way.

But we all have feelings
we all need loving

And who would be the fool
to say that if you

Hold me in your arms
I won't feel better?
If you hold me in your arms
we can brave this storm together.

We both know there's a problem a problem that we've got to face So put your trust in me lover no-one's ever gonna take your place.

'Cos we all have a problem
we all have fears
But there's always got to be a way.
Yes we all have feelings
we all need loving

And you would be a fool
to say that if you

Hold me in your arms
I won't feel better?
If you hold me in your arms
we can brave this storm together.

You only have to hold me touch me to make me feel so good

You only have to hold me
feel me to make me feel the way you know I should.

Hold me in your arms
hold me in your arms

Hold me in your arms
hold me in your arms

When you gonna hold me in your arms
hold me in your arms

Hold me in your arms
hold me in your arms
