

Slipping Away

Rick Astley

I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my heart, each and every day
I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my ha-ha-heart, each and every day

People ask me, "How's your love affair?"
I can only tell them lies
When they ask me, "Where you are tonight?"
I can only fantasize

You may find somebody new
You'll say "You love him", that's not true

I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my heart, each and every day
I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my ha-ha-heart, each and every day

Everybody thinks we're so in love
Things aren't always what they seem
Even my best friend says, "We're so good"
Just how wrong can a person be

You may find somebody new
You'll say "You love him", that's not true

I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my heart, each and every day
I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my ha-ha-heart, each and every day

You may find somebody new
You'll say "You love him", that's not true

I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my heart, each and every day
I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my ha-ha-heart, each and every day

I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my heart, each and every day
I can feel your love slippin' away
Drainin' from my ha-ha-heart, each and every day
