The Love Has Gone

Rick Astley

The love has gone The love has gone, will we ever be the same The feelings wrong, the joy has turned to pain

Wake up beside you, and hear you breathing And I can feel you in my arms No one can know just how I'm feeling Knowing that our love can come to no harm

But as I open my eyes Then I start to realise That you're gone and I can't go on

The love has gone, will we ever be the same The feeling's wrong, the joy has turned to pain The love is gone, will we ever be the same The feeling's wrong, the joy has turned to pain

What have I done girl, to make you leave me Didn't I love you for all those years

If you open your eyes Baby, then you'll realise That you're wrong, and I can't go on You know I can't go on

The love has gone, will we ever be the same The feeling's wrong, the joy has turned to pain The love is gone, will we ever be the same The feeling's wrong, the joy has turned to pain

Nothing will ever come between us If you will just take me back once more I'll show you just how much I love you If you'll just come walking through that door

The love has gone, will we ever be the same The feeling's wrong, the joy has turned to pain The love is gone, will we ever be the same The feeling's wrong, the joy has turned to pain
