Rick James

Yeah
That's right, baby
Yeah
Come on, come on
Come on, come on

Just because I love you
It doesn't mean you have to be always out to hurt me
And give me all your misery
You really know I need you
I can't resist your very touch
Could never be without you, I guess I love you much too much

And in my times of trouble, you were always there for me
You never ever quit me, or left me lonely out to sea
Although I love and hate you, you are the only one to choose
Do anything you ask me, I'll be your slave, oh, I'll be used, oh yeah

It's no secret, secret, secret
What I feel about you, baby, oh no
It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't live without you, girl
Oh no, oh no, oh no, oh no, oh no, oh no

In my imagination, we are the only ones alive
No one we found around us, and only you and I survive
It was a rollercoaster when we were riding up and down
And now our love is stable 'cause we don't walk on shaky ground

I need your understanding, I need the positive way you live
You never are demanding, you love to give and give and give
And if you ever leave me, girl, that would break my heart in two
I couldn't live without love, the only one I love is you, oh yeah

It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't live without you, baby, oh no
It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't live without you, girl, oh no
It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't live, I can't live, I can't live, I can't live
It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't live without you, baby

Oh no, oh no, oh no, oh no

Come on
It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't live, I can't live, I can't live, I can't live
It's no secret, secret, secret
I can't give, I can't give, I can't give
I can't give without you, girl, oh no
