

I Wanna Mean Something To You

Rick Price

Our paths cross everyday
But we never meet
And my imagination says
That would be so sweet
But I don't want your casual love
No that's too cold
Girl I want to open your heart
And just reach in and take a hold

I wanna mean something to you
I wanna mean something to you
I wanna mean something to you
Oh darling, I wanna mean something to you

In your corner of the world that I call home
I can stand right by your side
Still I'm all alone
See I don't want your friendly smile
Or the time of day
Girl I want to open your heart
And reach on in and steal it away

I wanna mean something to you
I wanna mean something to you
I wanna mean something to you
Oh darling, I wanna mean something to you

I want to be the one in the picture
That you show your friends
I want to be the one that you turn to
When the evening ends

I wanna mean something to you
I wanna mean something to you
C'mon
I wanna mean something to you
Oh baby, I wanna mean something to you

I want to be the one in the picture
That you show your friends
I want to be the one that you turn to
When the evening ends
