

Summer Reign

Rick Ross

Summer reign
Let's let the top down
(H Money)
Convertible music

All I ask is that you hold it down for me
'Cause you told me you would be my everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me
We could hustle this together, you and me
'Cause I told you I could be your everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me, yeah, yeah

Double M the logo, let the hustle take it's course (Maybach Music)
I let you fuck me once, you wanna make me yours
Gucci shopping bags, I stuff them in the 4x4s
Stop at Louis, post a picture, kill 'em, no remorse
Kill the lights, let's light a candle, come and fuck the boy
Whisper nothings in my ear you know that I'll enjoy
What you talkin' not a problem 'cause I handle yours
Fifty stacks, a pocket really just for amateurs
Lickin' on your neck, might wake up pissin' in a cup
Brut Belaire bottles on ice just for me to bust (Yes)
When you do it like I do I make you fall in love
Never slippin' but the difference is the all above

All I ask is that you hold it down for me
'Cause you told me you would be my everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me
We could hustle this together, you and me
'Cause I told you I could be your everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me, yeah, yeah

Kissin' on you might create some freaky scenes
Playin' in your weave before I spark my weed
Fuck you on the beach then order Uber Eats
Come to the crib in Lamborghini trucks, then lose my keys
New hairdo, she do it big the stack just for the wig
Tinted windows on the whip, Richard on her wrist
Look at how I live, this young nigga rich
A carwash everyday, that dirty money bliss
Cocaine residue all on my Fendi shoes
Wanna see you shine as if we win or lose
Told her she can pick my casket and my favorite suit (Yeah)
I pray we only lasted if we kept it true (True)
Move you to Miami that's how gangsters play (Boss)
Ass fillin' out of FashionNova everyday
Time is money and it's been a minute now
She a centerfold, every night I pin it down

All I ask is that you hold it down for me
'Cause you told me you would be my everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me
We could hustle this together, you and me
'Cause I told you I could be your everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me, yeah, yeah

All I ask is that you hold it down for me

'Cause I told you I would be your everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me, baby
We could hustle this together, you and me
'Cause I told you I would be your everything
If it's love then, baby, put it on me, yeah, yeah
