

Free and Easy

Rick Springfield

Afloat on the ocean, adrift in the sea
No one around us, there's just you and me
Alone on an island, asleep on the shore
Miles from everyone, I need nothing more.

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy.
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that you're there.

We wake in the morning, we walk by the shore
Miles from everyone, I need nothing more
We float on the ocean, we drift in the sea
The water surrounds us, so easy and free.

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that you're there.

We float on the ocean, we drift in the sea
The water surrounds us, so easy and free.

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that you're there.

And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
And I'm feeling free and easy
Just knowing that you're there.
