

I'll Miss That Someday

Rick Springfield

Throw me out into the rain
Then you comfort me with pain
How can our love ever last
You're just a big pain in the Ask of me, can we survive
this stormy sea?
Two worlds collide

Oh you and I will love when love's invisible
Take the time to say
I'll miss that someday

With every time you come unglued
I want to strangle you in two Learning lessons here I sit
This love can turn out to be
Chivalry on broken wings

Yeah you and I will love when love's invisible
Take the time to say
Yeah take the ride when life is unpredictable
Take the time to say
I'll miss that someday

One season, one reason
Screaming I won't say the words
Bite my tongue cause nothing lasts forever

Drag it out and take my hand
We'll do the best we can

Oh you and I will love when love's invisible
Take the time to say
Yeah take the ride when life is unpredictable
Take the time to say
I'll miss that someday
I'll miss you that day
I'll miss that someday
