Why Are You Waiting

Rick Springfield

What can I do I'm at the door I've tried turning back there's no point in that now What should I say, what should I do Should I fix my hair oh why am I scared now

Facing the world is so hard do you know what I mean People are so often hard and far too ready to say...hey...ohhh

Why Are You Waiting? Why Are You Waiting? Why Are You Waiting? What if I fail (you won't fail) Why Are You Waiting? What if I fail (you won't fail, you won't fail)

Look at me stand outside the door Like a frightened child with a nervous smile see What should I do, what should I say Should I speak at all I am much too small now

Facing the world is so hard do you know what I mean People are so often hard and far too ready to say...hey...ohhh

Why Are You Waiting? Why Are You Waiting? What if I fail (you won't fail) Why Are You Waiting? What if I fail (you won't fail) Why Are You Waiting? What if I fail (you won't fail, you won't fail, you won't fail)
