

A Cry Without Tears

Rick Wakeman

I need to listen
To what You tell me
About the pain, and the hurt, that I feel
I need to cry Lord, Cleansing my soul
But without tears in my eyes I cannot start again, Forgive me
I need to touch You and to free my shame
Listen, help me, guide me, feed me, with Your pain
(Save me, lead me, Help me, guide me
Fill my heart with love and peace and hope in Your salvation
Call me, use me, touch me, know me
I am here to serve and feed the seeds of Your creation)
I need to listen (and hear) To what You tell me,
(and know) About the pain and the hurt that I feel
(Only You can understand)
I need to cry Lord, Cleansing my soul
But without tears in my eyes I cannot start again
Forgive me (Forgive me Lord)
Now You have come to meet me
(My Lord)
Enter my life completely
(My Lord)
I need to touch You and to free my shame
(Lord set me free)
Listen, help me, guide me, feed me, With your pain
(Amen, amen, amen, amen).
