

Still Waters Run Deep

Rick Wakeman

Someone cries, but there? s no-one to hear,
No more time in an endless day,
No place to hide as the secrets unfold,
No more time left to fade away.

1st Bridge:

My life,
Gone from view,
Without love,
Without you.

Close your eyes, for there? s nothing to see,
Only dreams hiding far away.
No tears to cry now I? m left all alone,
Only seems like another day.

No-one can hear me,
A cry everlasting,
Bridges of time hidden deep within earth.
Not in this life is complete understanding,
A feeling of hope and of peace within earth.

Still waters run,
Still waters run,
Still waters run deep.

Waiting alone there is no peace of mind,
Only fear of another day.
Lost in eternity, no end in sight,
Only dreams of another way.

No-one can hear me,
A cry everlasting,
A feeling of hope and of peace on this earth.

2nd Bridge

Still waters run,
Still waters run,
Still waters run deep.

A feeling of hope
And of peace on this earth.

2nd Bridge:

Still waters run,
Still waters run,
Still waters run deep.
Still waters run,
Still waters run,
Still waters run deep.
