Low And Lonely

Ricky Skaggs

Low and lonely, sad and blue Thinking only, of little you Always trying, to keep from crying I'm low and lonely over you.

Do you miss me, say you do
Tell me darling, please tell me true
Do you yearn dear, for my return dear
I'm low and lonely over you.

Low and lonely, weary too
You're the only, true love I knew
Don't be long dear, you know it's wrong dear
I'm low and lonely over you.

You're my darling, you're my dear You can trust me, so never fear How I miss you, I long to kiss you I'm low and lonely over you
