

You'll Find God

Ricky Skaggs

Rising tides, tempest lies
From the day you're born
You could roll and never know
The calm inside the stone
That's ragin' on

And when the waves get to rockin'
And you're the lightning run
Don't forget to search in the back
Of your boat, fast asleep
You'll find God

Darkness falls, a furious wall
Your fear grows 20 feet high
He talks to wind, He walks upon it
An answer to our cry
Saying, "It is I"

And when the waves get to rockin'
And you're the lightning run
Don't forget to search in the back
Of your boat, fast asleep
You'll find God
You'll find God

Who is He, the wind and the sea
Listen and obey
If these things know He is King
Then why are you afraid?
Don't be afraid

And when the waves get to rockin'
And you're the lightning run
Don't forget to search in the back
Of your boat, fast asleep
You'll find God
You'll find God

You'll find God
You'll find God
You'll find God
