Apologize

Rico Love

Girl I apologize
The hardest thing for a man to do is to say I'm sorry"
But I'm a take that stunt
I just wanna apologize, for all the thing that I've done to you in the past
And all the things that I may do to you in the future
I love you that much yeah

'Cause I know you love me and I hope you know I love you just the same
Girl you mean so much to me but I'm gone change
The way I was before girl I might still do some wrong
But I promise I'll be strong, will you believe me baby

Girl I cross my heart, hope to die the truth
Now as long as I'm alive I'm a do right for you

Girl I apologize for all the wrong I did before
And all the wrong that I'm gonna do
I don't wanna hurt you no more, so baby I apologize
Girl I wanna apologize and I know it that I broke your heart
But I'm hoping that we can get through
Girl I'm fighting just to prove my love
Baby I apologize to you.

Girl I'd sacrifice my pride to keep you here
Because I'd probably would die if you're not here
Baby you bring me joy
Without you I'd go insane 'cause I just can't stand the pain
Don't ever leave me baby

Girl I cross my heart, hope to die the truth
Now as long as I'm alive I'm a do right for you

Girl I apologize for all the wrong I did before
And all the wrong that I'm gonna do
I don't wanna hurt you no more, so baby I apologize
Girl I wanna apologize and I know it that I broke your heart
But I'm hoping that we can get through
Girl I'm fighting just to prove my love
Baby I apologize to you.

My mama once told me anything worth have it is worth fighting for
So even if I gotta fight myself fight my pride
I wanna let you know how happy you make me And I'm a apologize myself
What can I say I love you that much

Girl I apologize for all the wrong I did before
And all the wrong that I'm gonna do
I don't wanna hurt you no more, so baby I apologize
Girl I wanna apologize and I know it that I broke your heart
But I'm hoping that we can get through
Girl I'm fighting just to prove my love
Baby I apologize to you.
