

Save Your Love

Rico Love

Yo, I can't explain how it feels to reveal
Something real, something genuine I think I need to chill
I was tripping a bit so she dipped off
Now I'm missing the kiss and the lip gloss
Now I'm just lost, yeah I had the whole world
But I'm lonely, without my baby girl
And I did my dirt, told those lies
Wish I could get her back, lord knows I tried
And now my man but lord knows I cried
She's more than a girlfriend, I need her to survive
And foolish pride is what left me on the side
Now I can't look her in the eyes, why

Wonder what you do live with you once again
Won't you save your love for me?
I'd trade it all just to kiss you once again
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me

Yo, the more money I got, the less I was willing to give Yeah, I gave you crib and I gave you a kid
But I didn't give you my heart, should have gave you my rib
You told the truth and I did nothing but...
I was in and out of night spots looking for the light
Found myself in a tight spot now ain't nothing bright
Shadow boxing with myself and I'm losing like a fool
I felt like a winner when I used to have you
Fake love, fake laugh, fake friends
Range rover rolls and the maybach benz
The smile in face but it's all just pretend
And I'd give it all up just to have you again

Wonder what you do live with you once again
Won't you save your love for me?
I'd trade it all just to kiss you once again
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me

I need you here, to erase all the pain
I need you here, when you're not here
Love feels ain't the same
I need you here, I need you here cause I can't stand the rain
I need you here, I promise I will change
Cause I love you, I love you baby
You're special, you mean everything to me
I want you, I want you girl
I can't let go, I'll give you the world
Cause I love you, I love you baby
You're special, you mean everything to me
I want you, I want you girl
I can't let go, I'll give you the world, sing

Wonder what you do live with you once again
Won't you save your love for me?
I'd trade it all just to kiss you once again

Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me
Wonder what you do live with you once again
Won't you save your love for me?
I'd trade it all just to kiss you once again
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me, for me, for me,
Girl just save your love for me.
