

Here We Go Again

Riddlin' Kids

Well another bad day's gone by.
Another day of being angry.
Never known a person who could spend so much time being mad at me.
And I didn't mean to get here late, my car ran out of gas, and then a freight train crashed into the road and I had to save the people.
Didn't think you'd get so mad, but here we go...
here we go again.

Your face cramps and you make a frown, then you make a whiny sound, and it won't be long till we both reach ground zero well oh no here w e go again.
And I know you didn't get your way, and now I guess you want to fight
all day.
I better watch out what I say, well don't look now cause here we go a gain.

Well I'm glad that you calmed down.
Never thought I'd ever see you smile after your head spun around and you spit all that green stuff out on me.
No, I can't go to the mall.
That really sucks you know how much I love to wait while you change a gain
and again and again and again and again.
Didn't mean to let you down, but here we go...
here we go again.

Your face cramps and you make a frown, then you make a whiny sound,
and it won't be long till we both reach ground zero well oh no here w e go again.
And I know you didn't get your way, and now I guess you want to fight
all day.
I better watch out what I say, well don't look now cause here we go a gain.

Well, I'm really sorry that.....that I made you mad again.
That doesn't really mean I'm sorry.
Cause it's really not my fault that you're over reacting...here we go
...
here we go again.

Your face cramps and you make a frown, then you make a whiny sound,
and it won't be long till we both reach ground zero well oh no here w e go again.
And I know you didn't get your way, and now I guess you want to fight
all day.
I better watch out what I say, well don't look now cause here we go a gain.

Don't look now cause here we go again.

Don't look now cause here we go again. Yeah.

Don't look now cause here we go again.

Don't look now cause here we go again.
