

We're only 2cm away now,
I'll be home again
I'll be home again to a place that might have been Where people in the past times thought they were waterfalls around the edge of the sea
Catch a drop of tear from me and tell me who you'd be

I touch your back, so wide and shaking.
Tell me why it's aching
All the efforts that you're making
Are like the leaves awaking from the rain
Come closer to me now I wanna touch your face
All the love can't be erased.
Come on and leave a trace

And when I'm feeling powerless,
I listen to the music they left by

Cuz our love is deeper and believer of the sea
Cuz you're the waves of my ocean
You're the waves of my ocean
So come and rock me
