

You change the color of your eyes, what you really mean is you don't really wanna be this way for good You pick up the stuff that's just been laid,
what you really mean is,
you gotta have some love for your day if you could

So I ache, so I ache,
it's more than I can take
it only gets even worse,
when I sleep when I awake and my belly keeps sinkin' Yeah, I wake up to the spiritual voice in my head and I say "hey, won't you listen?"
It can easily be left unheard and be left unsaid, but I listen, listen maybe too hard.

You pick up the stuff that's just been laid,
what you really mean is,
you wanna be the one to lay them out if you could would you say extra money would do?
Do you do it cuz you have to?
Then who's making you do it?

So I ache, so I ache,
it's more than I can take
it only gets even worse,
when I sleep when I awake
So I ache, so I ache,
it's more than I can take
it only gets even worse,
when I sleep when I awake
So, I wake up to the spiritual voice in my head
