

Balloween Intro

Riff Raff

Welcome to Balloween, hahahahaha

It's Balloween

(DJ Afterthought)

Everyone raise your glasses

It's amazing, staying away from the civilians on the pavement

As the leaves fall, notice how the mood changes

I just wanna be away from

Swedish mockingbird as my my soul unfolds

90 degree turns rain curtains made of gold

Shimmy shake shadowboxing at the Orange Bowl

Blunts from North Pole, rose gold nose

Color coordinated, the banana Benz was bladed

Dr. Kevorkian the way I elevated

You gon' state the truth, diamonds cradled the youth

I might cop the coupe or the shark tooth saber-tooth

We are not equal, two tone the Visa

Too much talking mane, that's why I private plane

I evade the plain, too many stains

I invade your brain, codeine campaign
