

Brand New Girlfriend

Right Said Fred

This is my brand new girlfriend
Will she last the weekend
Will she be good to me
Or just another ex-girlfriend

We met in the West End
My and my brand new girlfriend
We partied hard in my car
I drove her to the East End
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go out
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go out

Oh Sarah can't you see how we shine?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time
Oh Sarah can't you see how we chime?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time

Now I left her my number
While she was deep in slumber
I headed home and prayed my phone
Would ring and ring like thunder
She called me that evening
Which re-lit my belief in
There's a need for every eve
So one more time with feeling
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go out
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go, do do do do do do
And we go out

Oh Sarah can't you hear how we shine?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time
Oh Sarah can't you see how we chime?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time

Make-up in the bathroom, panties on the floor
Shoes and shoes and shoes and shoes and
The key to my front door
Then all at once it hit me, just where we're headed to
If you said "I do", what would I do?
If you said "I do", what would I do?
What would I What would I
What would I What would I do

What would I What would I
What would I What would I do

Oh Sarah can't you hear how we rhyme?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time
Oh Sarah yeah we're partners in crime
You and me together til the end of the line
Oh Sarah can't you see how we shine?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time
Oh Sarah yeah we're partners in crime
You and me together til the end of the line
Oh Sarah can't you see how we shine?
There's something 'bout you
baby makes it different this time
Me and my brand new girlfriend
Will she last the weekend
Will she be good to me
Or just another ex-girlfriend
