

Like A Woman

Right Said Fred

Sugar you need that sugar
Your life ain't sweet coz he ain't me
Forever don't take forever
Coz this honey pie is sweet enough for you and I
I'm gonna gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make your tears dry your heart fly
And then feel like a woman again

You can if you can two can
Coz enough's enough of this loveless stuff
Sugar you know it sugar
Inside you're craving a white knight saving you and then

I'm gonna gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make your tears dry your heart fly
And then feel like a woman again

Wishful wishful thinking ain't no good

Just take a look around you
Thank God I found you
Coz there's time enough for you to have a shot at love

I'm gonna gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make your tears dry your heart fly
Gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make you feel like a woman again
Gonna make your tears dry your heart fly tears dry
And then feel like a woman again
