

If It's Lovin' That You Want

Rihanna

I want to let you know
That you don't have to go
Don't wonder no more
What I think about you

If it's loving that you want
Then you should make me your girl, your girl
If it's loving that you need
Then, baby, come and share my world, share my world
If it's loving that you want
Then come and take a walk with me, walk with me
'Cause everything that you need, I got it right here, baby, baby

Now it's obvious you need a friend to come hold you down
Be that one you share your everything when no one's around
Baby, come tell me your secrets and tell me all your dreams
'Cause I can see you need someone to trust
You can trust in me

Di di di di da da dey
So just call me whenever you're lonely
Di di di di da da dey
I'll be your friend, I can be your homey

If it's loving that you want
Then you should make me your girl, your girl
If it's loving that you need
Then, baby, come and share my world, share my world
If it's loving that you want
Then come and take a walk with me, walk with me
'Cause everything that you need, I got it right here, baby, baby

It's been so long I've had this feeling
That we could be everything we've ever wanted, baby
Your fantasy
I won't push to hard or break your heart 'cause my love's sincere
I'm not like any other girl you know, so let me erase your fears

Di di di di da da dey
So just call me whenever you're lonely
Di di di di da da dey
I'll be your friend, I can be your homey

If it's loving that you want
Then you should make me your girl, your girl
If it's loving that you need
Then, baby, come and share my world, share my world
If it's loving that you want
Then come and take a walk with me, walk with me
Cause, everything that you need, I got it right here, baby, baby

If it's loving that you want
Then you should make me your girl, your girl
If it's loving that you need
Then, baby, come and share my world, share my world
If it's loving that you want
Then come and take a walk with me, walk with me

Cause, everything that you need, I got it right here, baby, baby

Di di di di da da dey
So just call me whenever you're lonely
Di di di di da da dey
I'll be your friend, I can be your homey

If it's loving that you want
Then you should make me your girl, your girl
If it's loving that you need
Then, baby, come and share my world, share my world
If it's loving that you want
Then come and take a walk with me, walk with me
Cause, everything that you need, I got it right here, baby, baby

I want to let you know
That you don't have to go
Don't wonder no more
What I think about you

What I think about you, boy
I got what you need
So come share my world
