Rihanna

push up on me rihanna we break , break , we break , break ,we break, break we're breaking down 2x

It's getting later baby, and I'm getting curious nobody's looking at us, i feel delirious cause the beat gonna tease my body shaking aside my bones and you pushin up my button ,taking me at my don'

bridge
The way that you stare, starts a fire in me come up to my room you sexy little thing and let's play a game, I won't be a tease I'll show you the boom , my sexy little thing chorus

I wish you would push op on me
I wish you would push op on me
I wish you would light me up and say you want me push up on me 2x

I know many guys just like ya, extremely confident got so much flavour with you like you're the perfect man you wanna make me chase ya like you're a compliment but let's get right down to it I can be the girl that can break you down

bridge
The way that you stare, starts a fire in me
