

The Last Time

Rihanna

Once was a time you and I
Made a promise till the day we die
I trusted each and every word
Never thinkin that I'd get burned
Silly me I believed in your fairy tales
Boy I thought that I knew you so very well
But you walked on my pride all the tears that I cried
And it cuts like a knife

[Hook]
Its the last time your ever gunna kiss these lips
Or ever will deceive these eyes
Believe me when I tell you this
Baby boy its the last time
Im ever gunna cry these tears
Im never gunna hear your lies
So listen while I make it clear
In case you didnt hear
This times the last time
Theres no time
To give it one more try
Theres only time to say goodbye

Fooled me once shame on you
Fooled me twice now this song is through
The things you said I can never forget
The things you did for my heart went through bad
But im still standin tall as I walk away
And you know that its true when you hear me say
Its over, its through
And nothin you can do boy its sad but its true

[Hook]
Its the last time your ever gunna kiss these lips
Or ever will decieve these eyes
Believe me when I tell you this
Baby boy its the last time
Im ever gunna cry these tears
Im never gunna hear your lies
So listen while I make it clear
In case you didnt hear
This times the last time
Theres no time
To give it one more try
Theres only time to say goodbye

Good Byeee No Baby
Silly me I believed in your fairy tales
Boy I thought that I knew you so very well
But you walked on my pride all the tears that I cried
And it cuts...like a knife

[Hook]
