

Las Brisas

Ringo Starr

Cross over the border,
We'll take a sailing ship into the night.

A sea without horizons,
We'll have each others love to hold us tight,
On a starless night.

Oh, las brisas,
Means the breeze will carry us like two birds in flight,
On a starless night.

Oh, penumbra,
Means the sunset that i see within your smile,
Is the dawn of your eyes.

Yo te amo,
Means i love you like i've never loved before.

Dreams come true, dear,
When i take you in my arms forever more,
Forever more.

Oh, las brisas,
Means the breeze will carry us like two birds in flight,
On a starless night.

Oh, penumbra,
Means the sunset that i see within your smile,
Is the dawn of your eyes.

Penumbra,
Means the sunset that i see within your smile,
Is the dawn of your eyes.

Yo te amo,
Means i love you like i've never loved before.
Forever more,
Forever more.

Ay ay ay ay ay.
Ay ay ay ay ay.
