

Love Is

Ringo Starr

Forever takes so long.
You turn around it's gone.
Everybody's here, but never for too long.

The door of willingness will one day open.
For everyone.

Time will always heal.
What the broken-hearted feel.
The poet's say it's so, but I'm not sure it's real.

I only know the answer is inside me.
And everyone.

Love is here.
Everywhere it's calling if you hear.
Love is opening your heart, it will appear.
Love is.
Love is here.

The quiet helps me stand.
A spirit guides my hand.
And that is how I know.
That there's a bigger plan.

This world is not for me and you alone.
It's for everyone.

Love is here.
Everywhere it's calling if you hear
Love is opening your heart, it will appear.
Love is.
Love is here.

A war will still go on, but love will come on strong.
You have to look inside, to see where you've come from.
I only wish for nothing less than everything.
Love is.
Love is here.

Love is.
Love is love.
