

Mindfield

Ringo Starr

What's right, who's wrong, ev'rybody takes sides,
My god, your god, god it's such a fine line.
E mail, jump bail, man becomes a female,
War wet, dragnet, take another percocet,
Somewhere in between
There's a world you've never seen.
Perhaps it's just a dream
But it's so real to me.

Livin' in a mindfield, we're walking on thin ice,
Livin' in a mindfield, there's no time to think twice.
Only we can make it better,
Let's all get well together.

Rock stars, pop stars, living in an ant farm,
Smooth talkin', cool walkin', drownin' in your own charm.
Mystic medicine, maharashi let us in
Way out, weigh in, where the hell have you been?
Somewhere in my dream
There's a twilight in between.
A place i've been but never seen
And it's so real to me.

Livin' in a mindfield, we're walking on thin ice,
Livin' in a mindfield, there's no time to think twice.
Only we can make it better,
Let's all get well together.

Ev'rything you do or say
Comes with a price that you must pay,
I didn't know that yesterday.

Good junk, bad funk, i can see through you,
Peace, love, ev'ryone be your own guru.

Ha! Ha! Ha!

Mindfield, i'm walking on thin ice,
Livin' in a mindfield, there's no time to think twice.
Mindfield, we're walking on thin ice,
Livin' in a mindfield, there's no time to think twice.
Mindfield,
Mindfield,
Mindfield,
Mindfield,
Mindfield.
