

Not Looking Back

Ringo Starr

Memory after memory runs through my mind
You're still in every picture after all this time.
Where will we go from here?
Still together after all these years.

Summers have come and gone
But our love goes on and on.
Who could ask for more than that?
I'm looking forward
Not looking back.

Can hardly wait for the days that are coming down
And where they'll lead us into places
no one else has found.
And I promise you right here
I'll love you for a thousand years.

Summers have come and gone
But our love goes on and on
Who could ask for more than that?
I'm looking forward
Not looking back.

Day after day
What else could I say
But I...love you

No regrets, just respect for all that we've done right
From where I stand, our future's still looking bright
Where will we go from here?
Still together after all these years.

Summers have come and gone
But our love goes on and on
Who could ask for more than that?
I'm looking forward
Not looking back.

Not looking back
Not looking back.
