

The Christmas Dance

Ringo Starr

Tonight's the Christmas dance in London town
The lights are up, the snow is falling down
Like every year I catch your eye across the floor
But too afraid to do much more

At the Christmas dance
That magic time of year when dreams come true
Yeah, the Christmas dance
The only dance I wanna dance is you
The music's playing, hearts are swaying to the rhythm of romance
At the Christmas dance

I combed my hair and straightened out my tie
This year I'm gonna ask you do or die
And I'll need every ounce of courage I can find
Feet don't fail me, love be kind

At the Christmas dance
That magic time of year when dreams come true
The Christmas dance
The only dance I wanna dance is you
The music's playing, hearts are swaying to the rhythm of romance
At the Christmas dance

No more searching love at last
(No more searching love at last)
No more ghosts of Christmas past
(No more ghosts of Christmas past)
Under the mistletoe we kissed and danced so slow
Ho!

And when our children ask the meaning of romance
(Christmas is not the romance)

It's the Christmas dance
That magic time of year when dreams come true
At the Christmas dance
The only dance I wanna dance is you
The music's playing, hearts are swaying to the rhythm of romance
At the Christmas dance

Oh, the Christmas dance
Yeah, the Christmas dance
Oh, the Christmas dance
Yeah, the Christmas dance, yeah

Merry Christmas!
Yeah, the Christmas dance, yeah
Merry Christmas! Yeah
Merry Christmas! Yes! Yeah! Yeah!

At the Christmas dance!
