

You've Got a Nice Way

Ringo Starr

Wasn't too long ago i was dying of an empty heart,
When you get lonely, gets so easy to fall apart.
Staying up all night,
Looking for trouble soon as it would start,
Then there was you there, lovin' me,
Waitin' for me to get smart.

You got a nice way of believin' in me,
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so i know.
You got a nice way of believin' in me,
You got a nice way, let me know, so i know.

Being' in love with you
Is like growing up into a child,
All you gotta do is look at me,
Nothin' i can do but smile.
Back a few years ago i was blind,
Now i can see for miles,
Baby, you saved me, lovin' me,
Will you stay for a while?

You got a nice way of believin' in me,
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so i know.
You got a nice way of believin' in me,
You got a nice way, tell me so, so i know.

Tell me you love me, baby, tell me once again.
Baby, it's good this lovin' you,
Knowin' that you're my friend.

You got a nice way of believin' in me,
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so i know.
You got a nice way of believin' in me,
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so i know.

(you got a nice way)
(you got a nice way of tellin' me so, so i know)

(you got a nice way)
(you got a nice way)
(you got a nice way)
