

3 Day Weekend

Rise Against

Aside from the name that holds us together now I think we'd fall apart it's the years we'll pretend we've forgotten that separate our hearts and I don't remember the way this was but the pictures prove I knew you once and where is the source of our mistakes I'm afraid one day we'll drift so far we'll wake up not knowing where we are these words accomplish nothing if I'm gone
