

Ready To Fall

Rise Against

Hold on slow down
Again from the top now and tell me everything.
I know I've been gone for
What seems like forever
But I'm here now waiting
To convince you that I'm not
A ghost or a stranger
But closer than you think
She said just go on to what you
Pretend is your life but
Please don't die on me

Wings won't take me
Heights don't phase me
So take a step
But don't look down, take a step

Now I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall (ready to fall)
I think I'm at the edge now but I could be wrong
I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall

Perpetual motion the image wont focus
A blur is all that's seen
But here in this moment like the eye of the storm
It all came clear to me
I found a shoulder to lean on
An infallible reason to live all by itself
I took one last look from the heights that I once loved
And then I ran like hell

Wings won't take me
Heights don't phase me
So take a step
But don't look down take a step

Now I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall (ready to fall)
I think I'm at the edge now but I could be wrong
I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall

I count the times that Ive been sorry (I know I know)
Now my compassion slowly drowns (I know I know)
If there's a time these walls could guard you (I know I know)
Then let that time be right now

Now I'm standing on a rooftop
Now I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall (ready to fall)
I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall
I think I'm at the edge now but I could be wrong
I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall
Now I'm standing on a rooftop(ready to fall)
Now I'm standing on a rooftop(ready to fall)
Now I'm standing on a rooftop(ready to fall)
Now I'm standing on a rooftop ready to fall

Thats
