The Strength to Go On

Rise Against

Welcome home, while away They have tampered with the locks And your things they rearranged

We propose a better way Said the note they left behind In their wake of disarray, you fell in place

Don't fall asleep, they'll find us here I know a place to disappear As a voice proclaimed

What we are is the sum of a thousand lies What we know is almost nothing at all But we are what we are 'til the day we die Or 'til we don't have the strength to go on 'Til we don't have the strength to go on

Let us cry, let us be Let us open up our hearts Without fear of anything

Faith alone is all we need To traverse this burning bridge Now before it gets too late

You claim it's fine
But the heart reveals what smiles betray
Your sad, sad eyes gave you away
But don't you know?

What we are is the sum of a thousand lies What we know is almost nothing at all But we are what we are 'til the day we die Or 'til we don't have the strength to go on 'Til we don't have the strength to go on

Our shoulders bear an awful weight But still we trudge on just the same Our colors run then leave a stain They blacken our once honest name

But how can we argue, tell me? Over the fury and the fire How many times can we tell you

That we are not like you, we see right through The poor disguise that fails to fool The wary eye that's trained on you

What we are is the sum of a thousand lies What we know is almost nothing at all But we are what we are 'til the day we die Or 'til we don't have the strength to go on 'Til we don't have the strength to go on

What we are is the sum of a thousand lies

What we know is almost nothing at all But we are what we are 'til the day we die Or 'til we don't have the strength to go on 'Til we don't have the strength to go on Yeah, we don't have the strength to go on
