Rise Against

1. Seven hundred miles to play to fifteen angry men.
I need some sleep.
They hate the songs We hate them too
This show is free

2. Twenty minutes in broke another f...ing string.
Just call it luck
I start to plead They start to leave someone
Someone yells you suck

X: Suddenly that joe kicks hard in my veins
I cool down
Things sound good right now
Suddenly fists turn into brave ears, move as one
Funny how no one knows we came
They wouldn't come anyway
Should I feel grateful to play
I'm living life my way

R: I fell in love with my enemy
I let go of everything I had left at home
I fell in love with my enemy
I let go of everything I had left at home

3. Two cool people came They're hiding by the door.
Eyes wide with fright
A guy, a girl, in love with the whole world
It almost makes it right

X: Suddenly that joe kicks hard...

R: I fell in love with my enemy...
