

Like I Am

Rittz

Fuck the rookie of the year bitch I'm a future hall of famer
You can see I came up
Long time coming from a dude who never gave up
You know another rapper comin' hard as me then name one
Talk alot of shit about me, I don't entertain em
Bang em, fuck hoes used to ball and chain em
The groupie at the show that blew me, you would probably claim her
Put the pimpin' on the bitch you suckers oughta tame her
Blame me cause I turned her out she used to be an angel
Stranger, but canned a strange music new addition
Fans told me to kill it I'm a do what you insisted
Real shit don't gotta separate the true from fiction
Famous tee and Levis we ain't got the true religion
Coming out the super system on some slum shit
Unfit for your kids to listen to a dumbie with a young bitch
Eating mushrooms on a tool deck long
Trip is on off a molly cups same kiss
Come sip on meth, on coke
Crush it with the credit card
Or the room key used to get inside the travel lodge
Camouflage, Jimmy Scott's in the Chevy Avalanche
Fantasize about the life of it cause I'm an enterprise
Fuck a bitch and when I finish tell the bitch no mas
Adios! and I know you wanna party ho
But I got alot of dough I'm trying to get
I'm runnin' circles round these rappers tell em catch up on they cardio
About to blow damn right, steppin on a land mine
We can throw them hands I'm never scared of combat
Representing in a A-Town skullcap
I ain't from the country bitch mother fuck a straw hat
We ain't ridin skateboards we be rocking all black
Thinking that it's all good, find out that it's all bad
Stick you up and run off with the shit y'all have
Nerve of these guys, we ain't giving y'all dap

Please you ain't like us
We ain't like them
And if you listen close enough than you can be like I am
You can be like I am, you can be like I am
Shit you ain't like us
We ain't like them
And if you listen close enough than you can be like I am
You can be like I am, you can be like I am
You can be
You can be like I am
You can be like I am
You can be like I am
You can be like I am

See y'all be on some trash shit, I be tryin to smell good
Burp every rich bitch sniffing and I smell blood
I be like a predator, the only thing I fear is God
Still y'all judging me because of my appearance
You got alot of nerves everything I hear sucks
Even if I was using a pair of ear plugs
Rappers looking like some lying lames trying to me trying hard
Posing like they taking pictures for the year book

Rowdy like a white kid who got a beer buzz
We ain't on no miller note only ground nigga missile hope
Put us in the four bitch no motel 6 hotel and they go
Me and you are the opposite of identical
You just cocky I'm confident I'm an animal
And I plan to go far with this rap shit
You the type of dude to quit and give up on em like Deangelo
Cameltoe pussy boy, gangsta on the internet
That's why the dumbest find the people come and liquor it
This world small fuck a gun cause a punch in the mouth
Will put a stop on people trippin on this twitter shit
I ain't even trippin no with the whole eating raw
Oysters on a half shell dripping in a mayonette
On a saltine double I was called seeing shit
Now walk inside the booth and I be spinning heads fire injury
Let the coke can't say I flow flow
Feelin good because I got a couple grand to blow blow
No hope pull the horses on a go go
They try to keep me up and get us in the no go, go go
Stick bitches still jump a dick
Cause my buzz getting bigger by the tickin' of the second hand
Make your wife try to hide her wedding band
Make your life pathetic man, them and they ain't never staying

Shit you ain't like us
We ain't like them
And if you listen close enough than you can be like I am
You can be like I am, you can be like I am
Shit you ain't like us
We ain't like them
And if you listen close enough than you can be like I am
You can be like I am, you can be like I am
You can be
You can be like I am
You can be like I am
You can be like I am
You can be like I am
