Sleep

Rivermaya

Tonight's the first night You're no longer in my arms A little colder Nothing but the darkness and the stars

My hand wanders through The space where you used to be I really wish that you'd Still come home to me

Until then I'll sleep Sleep.

Remember yesterday When your smile filled every room Imagined forever with you Now you're gone too soon

I can feel you calling There's no place that I'd rather be Just here with you, sleeping If only in my mind

Until then I'll sleep Sleep.

I can feel you calling There's no place that I'd rather be Just here with you, sleeping If only in my mind

Until then I'll sleep Sleep.
