

The Reason I Live

Rizzle Kicks

Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life,
And Maybe, When I can walk on my own,
I'll only mean to keep you in mind,
Like Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life

Yeah, I'm thinking of life it's always better to move on,
To everybody who don't, you can't let them improve wrong
We like to think we live with nothing to lose and if we Lose something let's come to move on, and I
No people find it hard to accept
One day we live our last breath, one gasp in your death
So I live life laughing instead,
Every time we make a wrong path is a test
Going to bar, with your shield, always a sentence
I'm not a king amount men, I remember that I
Love beat, I love rhymes, I love sex,
Than she wanna love read and sub-text
Cause crap happens for a reason
And some other thinks that happen round nears them
One please them stops'em and beat them, screw it I'm leavin'
And so I write: see, I hate it when people walk in the ugliest fashion,
Hater when people talk with no love or passion
Hater when small things, turn into something massive I'll just get home, sick of another classic like

Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life,
And Maybe, When I can walk on my own,
I'll only mean to keep you in mind,
Like Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life

You're my only sunshine,
You're the lights in my life,
When I'm down I just think of you
And next minute I'm fine

You're the hope in me
The only one in this world that can call with me
You are loving me,
When I'm over sees
How we'll never fall out well hopefully,
I never want to go back to the days when
You weren't there nothing actually make sense
And I was sad

Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life,
And Maybe, When I can walk on my own,
I'll only mean to keep you in mind,
Like Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life

Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life,

And Maybe, When I can walk on my own,
I'll only mean to keep you in mind,
Like Baby, I never want you to go,
Cause you're the reason I live my life
