Retribution

Rob Rock

Running from your life there's no escape Emptiness and anguish fill this never ending void Condemned to a brutal place, adapting to survive All you know is left behind, your shadow lost in time

The pleasure in the pain The glory of the insane

Retribution Retribution

Sorrow and pity scar the mind
Anger and hatred only amplify the pain
Devastated, losing all you own
On the edge you contemplate, naked and alone

The pleasure in the pain The glory of the insane

Endless torture, hatred fills my veins Demanding recognition, justice will be claimed

The pleasure in the pain The glory of the insane

Running from your life there's no escape Vengeance burns inside, tearing at my soul
