Don't Let The Sun Catch You Crying

Robben Ford

Don't let the sun catch you cryin' Cryin' at my front door You done Daddy dirty He sure don't want you no more

Don't let the sun catch you lyin' Lyin' at my front door Daddy's done turned salty And baby, you made him so sore

You can cry, cry, cry
Yes baby, you can wail
Beat your head on the pavement
Till the man comes and throws you in jail

Don't let the sun catch you cryin' Cryin' at my front door You done your Daddy dirty I tell you, he just don't want you no more

Whoa, you know, you done me dirty now And I just don't want you no more
