

All I Want

Robbie Seay Band

all i want is my frustation to be replaced with signs of spring all i want is confirmation that you're gonna see me through thi s thing

all i want..all i want is you all i want is just a window to let me know there's light outsid e
all i want is confirmation that what iim feeling isn't righrt all i want is that you'd find me and i'd have nothing more to s ay all i want is pure reflection of the one who's standing right i n front of me
