

Better Days

Robbie Seay Band

First of all thanks for listening to our song
We hope this finds you driving in your car
Or where ever you are
Breathe out and breath again

Know that life is hard
But it's worth breathing
Listen to me now for love, oh love
It's waiting for you just to say

Here come better days
Here come better days
Better days and a better place
I know

Secondly I'm all messed up so royally
I stumbled my way here, but wait, oh wait
Grace has found me, shaken up my soul
Grace will follow where ever you will go
Listen to me now Grace
Oh Grace, is calling for you just to say

Here come better days
Here come better days
Better days and a better place
I know

Green grass and I'm laying in the sunlight of you
The wind is moving through the trees blustering you
And the better days you bring, the better places found
Feasting at your table I'm overwhelmed

And I lift my glass drink to those who never gave up
Clouds pass fading into memories gone
And all I know for life is life and love and peace
What else could there be?

Here come better days
Oh, here come better days
Better days and a better place
I know
