

More Than Yesterday

Robbie Seay Band

the air is cold
i'm aware of you more than yesterday autumn leaves on winter's ground
stars of light upon the sky
silence falls

you are more beautiful today and your offering of grace is calling me away to you i am not the same
you never change
i am drawn to you
i am drawn to you
