

Bully

Robbie Williams

Never test the temper of a patient man
You've been tryin to be understood & boy do I understand
When you die, the world's gonna be lighter
See the heart of the champion, thru the, eye of a tiger

I simply don't care, if you hate me or love me Pass me the pistol; shoot the bully hooo haa...##..hooo haa...##..hooo haa...##
The bully the bully the bully the bully
hooo haa

Had to hurt myself!
Shot myself again!
I can't make it up!
The bully, the bully, the bully, the bully

I'm 'amake it go away
I'm 'amake it disappear
Hell is empty mama; the devil's here
Look at you walkin round like you're some kind of gen i us
Feel the steel, go tell it to jesus

I've seen your soul; man it's so ugly
C*ck the pistol; shoot the bully
hooo haa...##..hooo haa...##..hooo haa...##
"the bully, the bully, the bully, the bully
hooo haa

Had to hurt myself!
Shot myself again!
I can't make it up!
the bully, the bully, the bully, the bully

I've seen your soul; man its so ugly
If they wanna know, tell them;
I shot the bully
